

Medical/dental specialities and the length of the residency program in Estonia

Physiatry and rehabilitation – 3 years;
Ophthalmology – 3 years;
Orthodontics – 3 years;
Otorhinolaryngology – 3 years;
Family medicine – 3 years;
Restorative dentistry – 3 years;
Anesthesiology – 4 years;
Dermatovenerology – 4 years;
Allergology-immunology – 4 years;
Physiatry and rehabilitation with sports medicine – 4 years;
Endocrinology – 4 years;
Gastroenterology – 4 years;
Hematology/ haematology – 4 years;
Infectious diseases – 4 years;
Forensic medicine – 4 years;
Laboratory medicine – 4 years;
Medical genetics – 4 years;
Laboratory medicine with clinical microbiology – 4 years;
Nephrology – 4 years;
Neurology – 4 years;
Oncology (radiation therapy and chemotherapy) – 4 years;
Pathology – 4 years;
Pediatrics – 4 years;
Psychiatry – 4 years;
Pulmonology – 4 years;
Rheumatology – 4 years;
Obstetrics and gynecology – 4 years;
Occupational medicine – 4 years;
Pediatric surgery – 5 years;
Oral and maxillofacial surgery – 5 years;
Ophthalmology with Ophthalmologic Surgery – 5 years;
Neurosurgery – 5 years;
Pediatrics with one of the following subspecialities: allergology or endocrinology or gastroenterology or haematology-oncology or infectious diseases or cardiology or nephrology or neonatology or neurology or rheumatology – 5 years;
Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery – 5 years;
Psychiatry with child and adolescent psychiatry – 5 years;
Radiology – 5 years;
Orthopedics/Orthopedic surgery – 5 years;
Internal medicine – 5 years;
Internal medicine with allergology or clinical pharmacology or geriatrics – 5 years;
Thoracic surgery – 5 years;
Urology – 5 years;
Cardiology – 5 years;
Cardiosurgery/ cardiac surgery – 5 years;
Cardiovascular surgery – 5 years;
Vascular surgery – 5 years;
General surgery – 5 years;
Emergency medicine – 5 years;