

26.07.2022

Medical/dental specialities and the length of the residency program in Estonia

3 years

Ophthalmology – 3 years;

Orthodontics – 3 years;

Otorhinolaryngology – 3 years;

Restorative dentistry – 3 years;

4 years

Anesthesiology – 4 years;

Allergology-immunology – 4 years;

Dermatovenerology – 4 years;

Endocrinology – 4 years;

Gastroenterology – 4 years;

Hematology/ haematology – 4 years;

Infectious diseases – 4 years;

Forensic medicine – 4 years;

Laboratory medicine – 4 years;

Medical genetics – 4 years;

Nephrology – 4 years;

Neurology – 4 years;

Oncology (radiation therapy and chemotherapy) – 4 years;

Pathology – 4 years;

Pediatrics – 4 years;

Family medicine – 4 years;

Psychiatry – 4 years;

Pulmonology – 4 years;

Rheumatology – 4 years;

Physiatry and rehabilitation – 4 years;

Occupational medicine – 4 years;

5 years

Emergency medicine – 5 years;

26.07.2022

Cardiology – 5 years;

Cardiosurgery/ cardiac surgery – 5 years;

Cardiovascular surgery – 5 years;

Pediatric surgery – 5 years;

Neurosurgery – 5 years;

Oral and maxillofacial surgery – 5 years;

Ophthalmology with Ophthalmologic Surgery – 5 years;

Orthopedics/Orthopedic surgery – 5 years;

Pediatrics with one of the following subspecialties: allergology or endocrinology or gastroenterology or haematology-oncology or infectious diseases or cardiology or nephrology or neonatology or neurology or rheumatology – 5 years;

Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery – 5 years;

Psychiatry with child and adolescent psychiatry – 5 years;

Radiology – 5 years;

Internal medicine – 5 years;

Obstetrics and gynecology – 5 years;

Thoracic surgery – 5 years;

Urology – 5 years;

Vascular surgery – 5 years;

General surgery – 5 years;